

SEARICE is looking for an experienced and committed Policy Advocacy Officer with the following job description and qualifications:

Job Description:

The Policy Advocacy Officer is expected to fulfill the following tasks:

- Conduct policy research and analysis and write popular materials based on these research papers
- Help design and implement policy advocacy campaigns, action plans, and strategies in relation to specific issues and themes - particularly on Farmers' Rights, Intellectual Property Rights, Climate Change, and related matters.
- Assist Project Officers and partners in the conduct of activities and delivery of policy results.

Please note that SEARICE's policy advocacy work covers the local, national, regional, and international levels.

Qualifications

Applicants must fulfill the following qualifications:

- Graduate of Political Science, Development Studies, or any Social Science course
- Knowledgeable and with a proven track record in agriculture/environment-related policy and farmers' rights issues
- At least two years of relevant experience.
- With excellent writing and communication skills
- Can work under pressure, with minimum guidance and supervision
- Passionate for uplifting lives of the marginalized sector

If interested, you may email searice@searice.org.ph and submit the following:

- a.) Cover letter
- b.) Resume or Curriculum vitae
- c.) Sample academic work, or write-ups